Prior to joining Federal-Mogul, he served in a number of audit roles at Ernst & Young L.L.P. Haughie is a chartered accountant and holds a Bachelor of Haughie succeeds Mike Kinney, who has served as interim CFO since July 2018. Kinney will return to his role as Treasurer and Investor Relations Director.

Haughie brings more than 25 years of financial expertise and significant strategic planning leadership experience to LP. He most recently served as Senior Vice President and CFO of ServiceMaster Global Holdings Inc., a leading provider of essential residential and commercial services, where he was instrumental in successfully leading the company through several milestone events, including its initial public offering and a $2.4 billion debt refinancing, among others.

"After conducting a thorough search process, we are pleased to welcome an executive of Alan's caliber to the LP management team. His strong financial background and leadership experience paired with his commitment to driving profitable growth and value creation make him the ideal person for the role. We are confident that Alan will be an asset to our team as we continue executing on our strategic transformation into a leading building solutions provider," Brad Southern, LP Chief Executive Officer, said.

"I am honored to join LP at this important juncture in the company's history," Haughie said. "LP has made significant progress on its transformation to a leading building solutions company. I look forward to working with Brad and the talented LP team to help accelerate that transformation and deliver results and value creation for shareholders."

"On behalf of the Board and management team, I want to thank Mike for assuming the role of interim CFO and overseeing a seamless transition of responsibilities. We look forward to LP continuing to benefit from Mike's financial expertise and strategic insight," Southern said.
